

Davos Cash Game Series

Info factsheet

Concept

Casino Davos is organising a unique Poker Cash Game Concept in Switzerland.

Since the beginning of 2023, the highest city in Switzerland brought back Poker to their Casino, and their HCD Poker Lounge is open every day.

But it will not be Casino Davos giving poker fans something entirely special – it will be a partnership with 777.ch and PokerStars.ch.

Once a month for 8 months, Casino Davos, PokerStars & 777.ch will host a unique Cash Game in the HCD Poker Lounge, where you won't just play for cash on the table but also for huge bonus prizes such as "PokerStars Tour Packages". You will also be playing to take part in a PokerStars EPT-Event worth over €5,000! This is undoubtedly the Cash Game with the highest winnings in Switzerland!

In this game, online qualifiers will play against live game experts and invited players. They will enjoy a unique Cash Game experience with fun bounties and a leaderboard, in which the best Cash Game player will win a seat at an EPT, and the best qualifier will win a package for a PokerStars Event including travel costs!

The online qualifier for this event is only for players with a habitual residence in Switzerland.

Package

Players can qualify both online and at a live tournament for a package. Qualifiers for live tournaments take place in conjunction with the Schweizer Poker Verband. You will be able to find further information on their website soon.

The value of the package is 3,000 USD, which corresponds to the following bets:

- 2400 CHF of Buy-Ins Total
- 100 CHF of Rake-contributions
- A night in the hotel + breakfast

By accepting the package, players that have qualified for this package declare to use 2400 CHF in Buy-ins (as part of the package value) and to play at least 150 hands (or an estimated 6 hours) at Davos Cash Game, or to play until they have lost the entire package buy-in of 2400 CHF. If a player loses the entire buy-in of 2400 CHF, they are free to buy in again and are free to stop at any time. A player is qualified for special prizes if they have chips on their table after the last hand of the session has been handed out.

Buy-in, Limits & Game

The minimum start Buy-in is 1200 CHF for any player.

The maximum start Buy-in is 2400 CHF for any player.

Any player can always buy more between the hands (one Buy-in or Rebuy should be the minimum stack of 1000 CHF). After a player has lost all their chips, they have 4 minutes to decide whether they want to retake their place or not. Any player can get a rebuy to reach the largest stack on the table.

The total buy-in per player is restricted to 9750 CHF across the entire session, irrespective of whether there are larger stacks on the table or not.

The game is played with Blinds 5/10 and a button ante of 20 CHF*.

The game (mainly) played is No Limit Texas Hold'em, except for "crazy hands" (see below).

Rake & Tips

To consider the speed of the game and to have a result that is as clear as possible on the leaderboard, a one-time amount for Rake of 100 CHF is imposed (this is included in the package). The amount will be paid at the beginning of the game when a new player joins. When a player joins after the first break, the amount is 60 CHF. When a player joins after the second break, it is 30 CHF.

The players can tip the dealers at the end of the session. A contribution to the tips will not be deducted from the total result of the Cash Game.

Special prizes, bonuses, and premiums

Additional special prizes

At the end of the session, the positive results are shown on our leaderboard.

The best net final result after 8 sessions includes an EPT buy-in in value of €5300.

The best net final result of a qualifier after 8 sessions includes a PokerStars package with a value of €3000.

To make the game more exciting and strategic we have included the following special rules.

The bounty game "the Dom"

At the beginning of the games, a random player will be named “the Dom.” Any player who successfully bluffs this player by showing a bluff takes on the title of “the Dom.”

The player who, at the end of the session has the title “the Dom”, will receive a bottle of Champagne. The player who receives the title “the Dom” receives a plate, to make it visible to all players that they are “the Dom”. If a player is “the Dom”, and loses the Cash Game before the session ends, a new “Dom” will be randomly selected.

A Bluff: Winning a hand by forcing your opponent to quit after one bet, without having a good hand. A player can only claim a bluff for themselves when they have shown their hand at the table.

Additions: “Crazy Time”

After every break, “the Dom” will roll a 6-sided dice to determine the number of hands of “Crazy Pineapple” that will be played before the normal Texas Hold’em game is continued.

Crazy Pineapple is a version of Texas Hold’em where every player receives 3 Holecards and every player (who is still in the game) drops a Holecard after the Flop is dealt and the betting round is finished.

Leaderboard

The best positive net result per player will be noted in the leaderboard. A net result constitutes the number of chips that a player has in front of them at the end of a session. A player must still have chips on the table after finishing the last hand of the session to have their result noted on the leaderboard.

For example: A player buys in for 1200 CHF, loses their stack, buys in again for 1200 CHF, and manages to accumulate 3160 CHF by the end of the session. This player will have a net result of +760 CHF.

Coverage and Media

By participating in the Davos Cash Game Series, the player acknowledges that they have to sign a media waiver in which they forgo the ownership rights to all photo and video material taken during the event. The Casino Davos AG is the sole proprietor of the intellectual property of all photo and video recordings that are taken during the Davos Cash Series Events.
